

Robust Vocabulary

1. asset An asset is a resource, person, or object that is valuable to have.
2. intently When you do something intently, you do it with great concentration.
3. profusely Something done profusely is done in great quantity.
4. ordeal An ordeal is a very difficult experience that is unpleasant to go through.
5. terrain Terrain is the kind of land that is found in a place; for example, terrain might be rocky, hilly, or swampy.
6. dismal Something that is dismal is bleak and depressing.
7. peril Peril is great danger.
8. esteem To esteem something means to judge it to be of value.