Rainy, Sunny, and Snowy

By Viviana Arnold

For my mom and my dad with love. V. A.

I am jumping in a mud puddle. It is raining. I love that! The mud puddle is so squishy. Birdies are singing for me. We went inside to have sandwiches. My mommy and I loved the sandwiches.

Now it is a sunny day. I love when my daddy tries to catch me on the slide. After we went outside, we went in my room. We had a pillow fight.

Now it is snowy but I am asleep. The rainbow is gone but not for long.

About the Author

I live with my mom and dad (that's it). I used to have a kitty but she died and I miss her. She was black and white and her name was Chloe. She will always be my kitty forever and ever. I like potato soup and cheese sandwiches but my favorite food is burritos. Briann is my best friend. We go to school together, to the babysitter together and we were in gymnastics together.
