

The Sneaky Leprechaun

By: Rayann
Hunnell

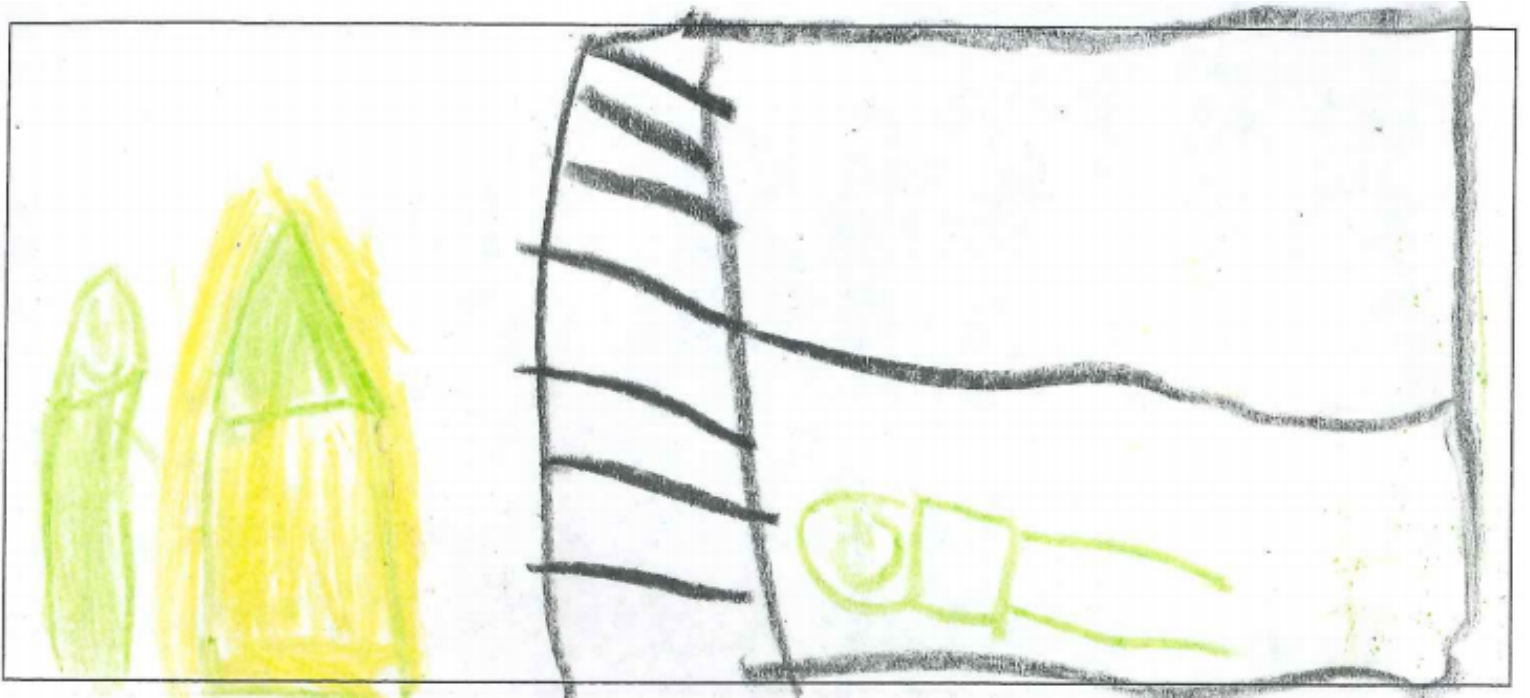

I was trying to catch a leprechaun in a trap but I didn't catch him. I opened the door and he wasn't there in the trap.

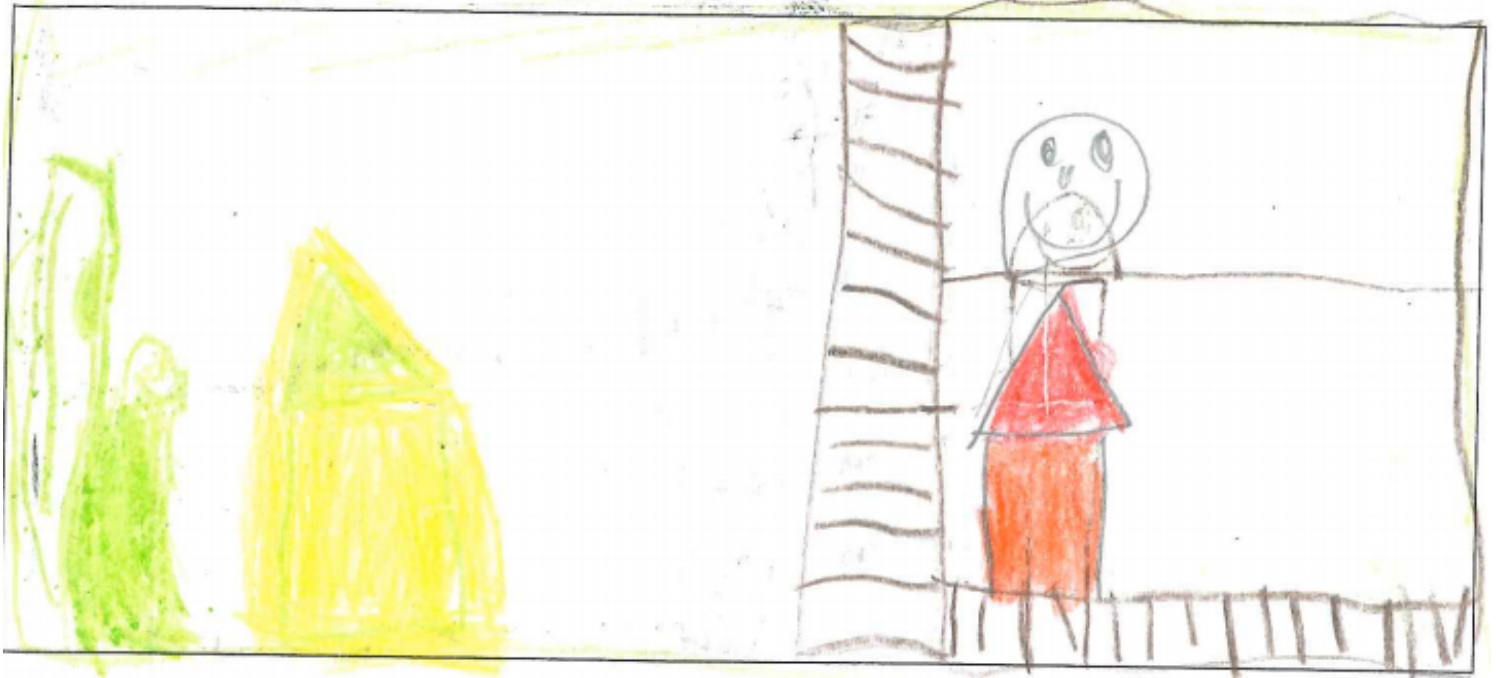

I am putting cake for the leprechaun to eat. Then he can eat it at his table in his house.

I am sleeping on my bunk bed and the leprechaun came into my room and he saw my trap.
It was my dollhouse. I filled it with gold.

I woke up and he was there,
hiding behind my dollhouse and
he was lying down.

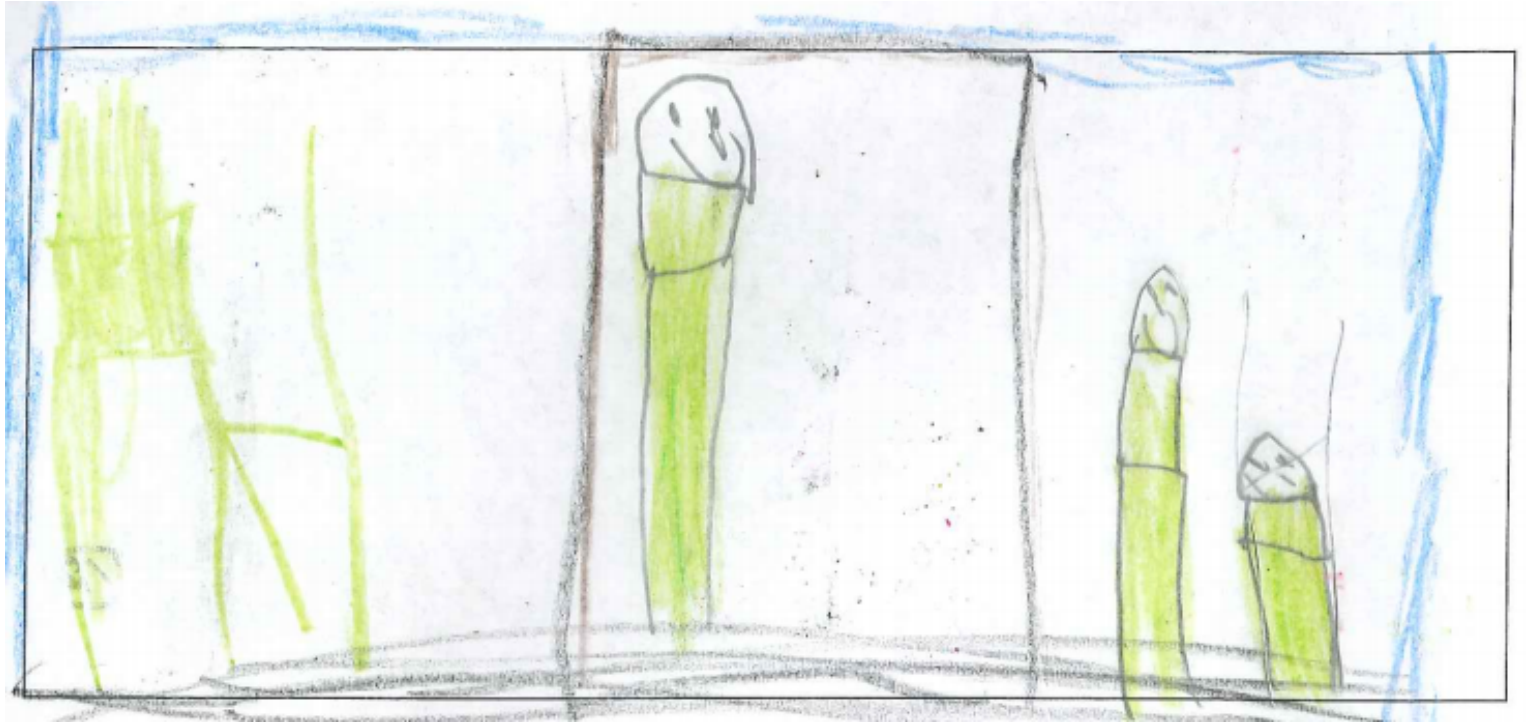

I am awake and he was there!

"Here he is!" I said. "He is hiding behind my trap." I picked him up and I showed my mommy
and daddy and they smiled.

Mommy got up but daddy wanted to sleep. But when mommy got up, the leprechaun
ran away!

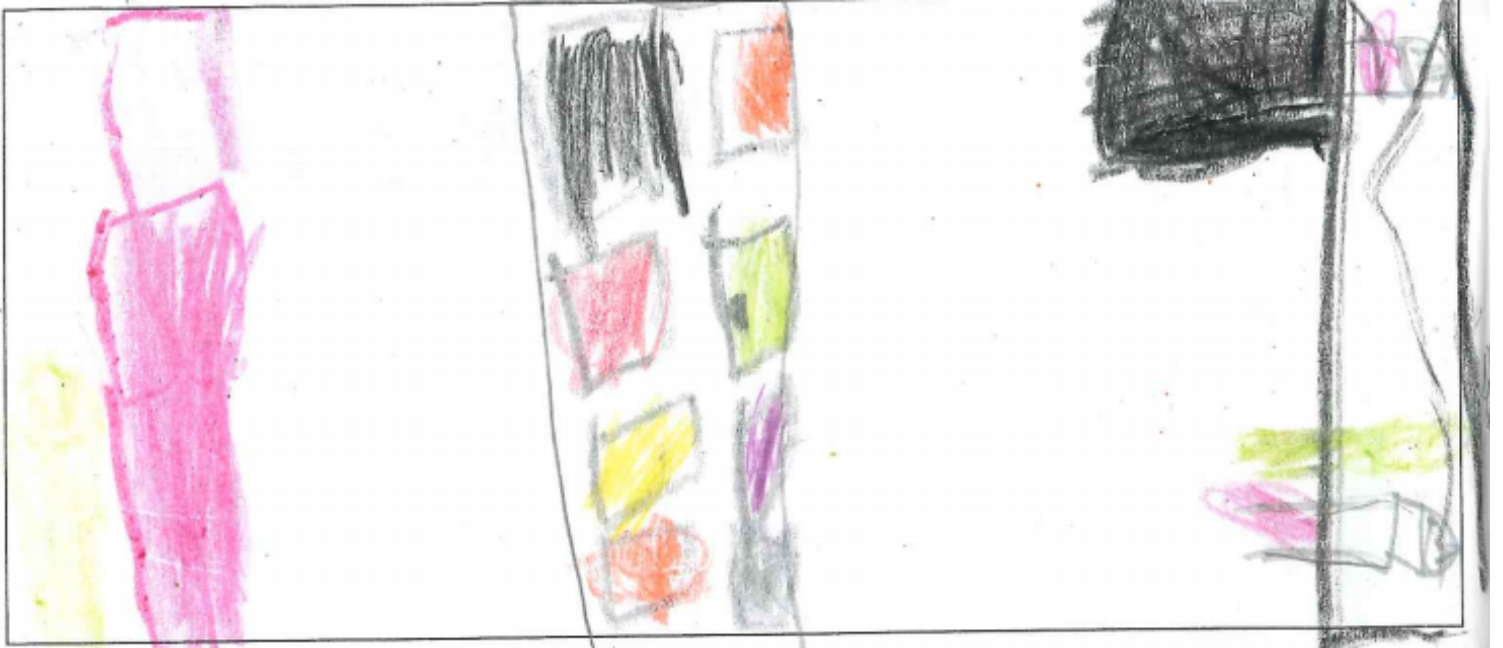

Mommy said, "What Rayann?"

I told mommy the leprechaun ran away. Then daddy woke up for work.

Daddy is leaving the house but first he gave me a hug and kiss and then he gave mommy a hug and then daddy left the house.

I picked up the leprechaun
again and mommy smiled.

When daddy got home I wanted to show it to daddy.

Mommy and I were watching tv
when daddy got home.

About the Author

My favorite color is pink and my favorite food is pizza. On Wednesdays, I get to sleep in my mommy's room. I like school and my best friends are Briann and Morgan. My favorite teacher is Mrs. Mulder. The best part about school is writing in my journal.