Pro Look Uniform will host a Public Safety Community Day at 429 Rohrerstown Road, Lancaster, PA 17603. It will run from 10AM-2PM on Saturday, May 3rd. The event will feature local Police, Fire, and EMT departments. There will be plenty for kids and families to take part in. Among the departments featured will be Loyalty Ambulance, who will give safety preparedness demonstrations at 11 AM and 1 PM. Officer Wayne McVey and Charlie from the Lancaster City Mounted Police unit will explain how he and the other officers at the mounted patrol unit protect the city. The firefighters from Engine 67 of Rohrerstown Fire Company will have apparatus and firefighters in attendance to interact with kids and show off some of their equipment as well as learn about fire prevention and safety. This is a great chance for the public to meet and greet and for Pro Look to honor professionals and volunteers they have served for over 30 years.
